

ACCESS ACKNOWLEDGMENT

and

SECRECY ORDER RECOMMENDATION BY DEFENSE AGENCY

Application Serial No.: 101811529

Defense Agency: ARMY

Filing Date:

Date Referred: 6-2-04

Date Created:

I hereby acknowledge as indicated by my signature on this form that I have inspected this application in administration of 35 USC 181 on behalf of the Agency/Command specified below. I promise not to divulge any information from this application for any purpose other than administration of 35 USC 181.

Recommendation

(e.g. 'Secrecy Not Recommended (SNR)')

Reviewer(s) Signature/Date/Command

Wesley P. Allen SNR
6-15-04
JUN 15 2004
U.S. Army
CONCOM AF/Navy

RECEIVED

JUL - 9 2004

LICENSING & REVIEW

Instructions to Reviewers:

1. All individuals reviewing this application are required under 35 USC 181 to sign and date this form regardless of whether they are making a secrecy order recommendation.

2. The attached copy of the application, any copies made therefrom and this form must be returned to the PTO once a recommendation not to impose secrecy has been made or a secrecy order has been rescinded.

Notice for Completion of Review:

Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. 184, the subject matter of this application may be filed in a foreign country for the purpose of filing a patent application without a license any time after the expiration of 6 months from filing date unless the application becomes the subject of a secrecy order.

35 USC 181 (a) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (b) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (c) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (d) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (e) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (f) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (g) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (h) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (i) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (j) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (k) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (l) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (m) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (n) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (o) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (p) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (q) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (r) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (s) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (t) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (u) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (v) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (w) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (x) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (y) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application. (z) (1) provides that an application for a patent shall not be published in the United States until 18 months from the date of filing of the application, unless the application is published in the United States before the expiration of 18 months from the date of filing of the application.